Extra car parking is lined up

BY JAMES AVERILL

james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

AN EXTRA 217 standard parking spaces could be created in the city centre simply by redrawing the lines for bays.

Milton Keynes Council looks set to go through with the plans, which would see a number of bays changed from a 2.4 metre standard width to 2.3 metres.

The authority has pledged to create 1,000 extra parking spaces this year – and 234 were created in May as a result of converting premium 'red' spaces to standard 'purple' bays.

It followed the launch of this newspaper's Fair Parking campaign calling for more cheaper spaces for workers struggling to find somewhere to park.

But repainting the lines would require £300,000 from the parking surplus reserve budget – profit from parking income. A council meeting will be held on Tuesday to determine whether to use those funds.

It comes after other options including decking and multi-storey car parks were prevented, either due to cost or permission from landowners.

Councillor Matt Clifton, cabinet member responsible for parking, said: "It's not about finding a corner here and there, we'll look across the whole city centre to find these spaces."

But Chris Wermann, director of corporate affairs for the Home Retail Group, which is based in Avebury Boulevard, said: "My concern is that the bays are already quite small and it could cause more damage to modern cars, which are getting bigger.

"Making more bays with the same amount of space isn't necessarily the solution, but we welcome the council taking up the challenge to find more spaces since businesses protested."

Alex Walker, the Conservative shadow cabinet member for highways, said: "This is only a short term fix, it is important the council continues to explore innovative solutions."

And Melanie Beck, city centre manager, who represents CMK businesses, said: "Cars are getting bigger yet the bays will get smaller. It is already difficult enough with the current spaces.

"Making them smaller is a huge mistake, we need a long-term idea."

But Cllr Clifton added: "The change in width won't be applied everywhere, just where we can get more spaces. There won't be a noticeable difference."

Teen victim of knife-wielding redway robber

A 13-YEAR-OLD boy was robbed of his bike after being threatened with a knife by a group of men on a redway near a playing field.

At around 8pm on Sunday the teenager was cycling with his friends near Cranborne Avenue in Westcroft in the direction of Kingsmead.

When he got to a junction on the redway, he saw four men ahead of him.

As the victim cycled past the group, one of the men grabbed hold of his shoulder and pulled him, causing him to fall off his bike.

The man then kicked him as he lay on the floor.

The same man held a knife to the victim's face and threatened him before picking up his bike and cycling off in the direction of Tattenhoe.

The man who stole the bike has been described as black, aged in his mid to late teens and around 5ft 10ins.

He spoke with a deep voice and potentially had an African accent.

He was wearing a black and white vertically-striped hoodie with the hood up covering his hair, black jogging bottoms and black Nike Air Max trainers.

The other men are also black, of a similar age and were also wearing black jogging bottoms and trainers.

The stolen bike is a hybrid, with a silver and red frame with black writing on it and black handle bars.

Anyone who has any information about this incident is urged to call police on 101, or Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 111 555.

‘Make the most of rare opportunity’

MK DONS’ chairman Pete Winkelman has urged Milton Keynes to make the most of hosting three Rugby World Cup matches, labelling it a ‘once in a lifetime’ event.

England’s victory over Fiji at Twickenham on Friday kicked the competition off, and stadiummk will welcome France and Canada on October 1.

Samoa face Japan on October 3 and Fiji take on Uruguay in the final contest in Milton Keynes on October 6.

Mr Winkelman is excited by the prospect of a world event being staged in the city and he firmly believes it will provide countless benefits to the area.

Speaking to MK NEWS, he said: “This is a world event beamed to billions of people, so I think it will really help with the profile of the city, but I think it is also important in legacy terms.

“People watching these games will see the stadium and recognise it is right up there with some of the best venues.

“It raises the profile of the sport in the area and it will be good on millions of levels, such as increasing participation, raising fitness and combating obesity.

“It is a once in a lifetime opportunity so we have got to make the most of it.”

Speechless: Joe Schembre missed the first phone call telling him he would be a flag bearer

Fans flying the flag for visiting teams

TWO young rugby fans have won the chance to be flag bearers for Japan and Fiji during the Rugby World Cup.

Joe Schembre, 15, from Bletchley will be leading out Fiji when they play Uruguay at stadiummk on October 6.

Meanwhile, Rory Hammond, 10, from Wolverton will be holding the flag of Japan when they take on Scotland at Gloucester’s Kingsholm on October 23.

Joe, who plays second row at Bletchley Rugby Club under 15s, said: “I missed the original phone call to say that I had won but I was speechless when I found out and it is a once in a lifetime opportunity.

Rory said: “It will be awesome. I can’t wait to go on the pitch and experience the atmosphere!”

Rugby Fanzone can welcome up to 10,000 people

PREPARATIONS for the Rugby World Cup Fanzone at Campbell Park are nearly complete after final work on the site began this week.

About 10,000 fans will be able to go to the Fanzone, which is offering a whole host of entertainment alongside showing the rugby matches.

Milton Keynes is one of only 12 cities hosting the Rugby World Cup and The Parks Trust set up the Fanzone to help celebrate this.

Briony Fox, head of community engagement for the trust, said: “We have all been working very hard to get the Fanzone ready and building started on site on Monday, with things like the big blue marquee – which could be a landmark for the games in Milton Keynes – getting set up.

“We’ve got a full raft of entertainment and there won’t be any times when you are in the Fanzone when there’s nothing going on.

“We’re very busy and we are pulling together all the fine details but we can’t wait for the tournament to get started. I love rugby anyway so I will definitely be watching.”

Although there are three games at stadiummk, fans who aren’t going can still get a great view of games on the big screens at the marquee.

“Up to 10,000 people can be in the Fanzone and the marquee – which will be screening games – can comfortably fit 5,000 people. There’s also room for 750 people in the sports bar, which has screens too,” Briony said.

“There will be lots of activities outside the marquee too.

“There will be lots to do that isn’t rugby related – the whole point of the Fanzone is about getting out and enjoying the rugby but it’s also for people who may not know a lot about rugby and will very much be a family affair.”

Pitch perfect for the world's gaze

BY SCOTT KIRK
scott.kirk@mk-news.co.uk

EXCITEMENT is growing ahead of the Rugby World Cup arriving in Milton Keynes, but with that comes a lot of expectation as the world's eyes focus on the city.

Among those feeling the pressure are the people preparing the pitch to make sure that millions of rugby fans around the world are impressed with the ground.

This responsibility largely falls on head groundsman Joe Aylett.

He has previous experience of preparing the pitch for the rugby with Northampton Saints having played at stadiummk recently, but the pressure has been cranked up with the Rugby World Cup and he has been preparing for 18 months.

"I'm really excited about it but I'm tired before we've even started," said Joe.

"We've got world coverage so images of our little stadium will be going out all over the world."

Work includes letting the grass grow an extra 10mm, while two metres of 3G turf has been laid around the pitch for safety reasons in case any tackles take place towards the edges of the pitch.

Changing all the white football lines on the pitch to accommodate the rugby is also a big task that the ground staff will have to do after MK Dons play Derby County on Saturday.

Joe said: "They don't want to see football lines for the Rugby World Cup so they will be washed out and you won't see them."

Big push: Ground staff lead by MK Dons' head groundsman Joe Aylett mark out the pitch and put up the posts for the rugby

But it is not just the stadium that ground staff have had to sort out.

With Fiji and Samoa training on the normal Dons training pitch, the U18 pitch has been improved so the Dons' first team players can train on it.

"We've had to make the U18s pitch a good pitch so we've had a lot of work to do even before the rugby gets here," added Joe.

"The U18s pitch has been improved for the first team to move to and it's looking fantastic down there.

"Milton Keynes Council have been helping us with watering it and cutting it every day because we don't have enough staff so it has been a great help."

Painting town pink and blue

PINK and blue bollards and benches have started to appear around Central Milton Keynes.

The bollards outside Margaret Powell House in Midsummer Boulevard and the benches near The Hub have been painted by Milton Keynes Council to celebrate the Rugby World Cup.

But residents have hit out saying it 'is a waste of money' and the cash should have gone towards 'potholes, roads and homelessness'.

A spokesman for the council said: "The bollards and benches around CMK are due to be repainted as part of the allocated budget set aside for the Rugby World Cup 2015.

"As we are hosting the Rugby World Cup 2015 matches in MK it was a good opportunity to celebrate and embrace this and instead of picking up the standard black paint we used something a bit brighter to compliment the city dressing and way finding signage that is going up around the city."

Key facts

You could make a difference to a child or young person's life

Milton Keynes Council is keen to recruit people who can offer a safe and loving home for a child/young person in care. We are especially seeking carers for teenagers. As a Milton Keynes Council foster carer you will be provided with a generous allowance plus support and training.

Our foster carers come from all walks of life and across a diverse community. They offer children and young people a nurturing, caring home environment where they can begin to thrive and reach their full potential.

It's a challenging role; one which will always ask for a great deal of input and support from you. However in providing a home to a child/young person who is unable to live with their family for a period of time you will be creating a wonderful experience for everyone involved.

Fighting for first class school places in city

ROBERT Lee (Letters, MK NEWS, September 9) asked my views about the growth of MK, school provision, etc.

MK's councillors have adopted a target of 1,700 new homes per year, not because we 'need' that many for our existing people but because we choose to grow that fast, with all the jobs, shops, leisure and cultural amenities that come with attracting hundreds of new families to MK each year.

Managing all the details isn't easy for the many organisations involved. Over the years I've had to intervene, as a ward councillor and working with many local residents, to persuade the council to build a school that originally it didn't think was necessary (Oakgrove Primary), to expand existing and planned schools (in Broughton and Brooklands) and to put our popular local secondary school onto its current, superb site rather than the smaller site it was originally proposing. I was successful in arguing that as pupil numbers were going up, our local schools needed proper classrooms rather than temporary buildings.

I see Mr Lee disagrees with Labour's decision to spend £6million on council office refurbishments and he feels his (Labour) councillors don't keep local people properly informed. The answer to both those problems is entirely in the hands of Mr Lee and the rest of the voters in his area!

Cllr John Bint
MK Conservatives

Xplain why you always protest against change

ONCE again I open my paper to another development in Milton Keynes being protested against by the group that calls themselves Xplain – a group, that from what I can make out, seem to object to everything that is proposed.

I did tweet it once asking if there was anything in MK that it actually approved of, but received no response. I can only assume it didn't like my tweet or was busy out protesting against something.

Change is constant and without it we'll never move forward; a fact that is apparently lost on the group that must protest at everything.

Look at slippery issue of Serpentine Court

COUNCILLOR Mohammed Khan says Serpentine Court in Bletchley in not up to standard. (MK NEWS, September 9).

The demand for demolition of Serpentine Court was started 20 years ago when plans for Bletchley's regeneration were started in the 1980s and the Labour party used it as a talking shop rather than doing something for Serpentine Court. I have also raised the issue in your paper.

Serpentine Court was considered a problem housing complex due to the way it was built as a temporary building to accommodate Londoners moving to Bletchley.

It is true that everybody irrespective of political affiliation wants to demolish the building as soon as possible.

There are three things to done:

1. Prepare a viable plan with full costings and how to fund the project.
2. It appears that some of the flats are owner occupied. The council should pay the market price for buying these flats and encourage the tenants to move to newly built houses. The council should, if necessary, help them with a mortgage.
3. Residents who are council tenants should be provided with decent accommodation in several phases without any problem. The residents should get priority over refugees. Recently plenty of flats and houses were built around Bletchley but the people do not have the money to buy them.

The Labour administration has already cut services and increased parking charges and the cost of bus charges and passes.

It has also talked about demolishing some of the estates such as Netherfield and Tinkers Bridge and it will cost millions of pounds to do that.

I do not know much about the referendum you mentioned in your article but I feel the top priority should be to knock down Serpentine Court.

This issue should be taken very seriously.

Police map out loutish incidents

BY JAMES AVERILL
james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

NEW Bradwell was the most anti-social estate outside Central Milton Keynes during the month of July.

An online map at www.police.uk shows all crimes that have been recorded in Milton Keynes and details where the 551 reports of anti-social behaviour took place in July.

Central Milton Keynes came first, but New Bradwell was next with 31 reported anti-social incidents, narrowly finishing ahead of West Bletchley with 30 reports.

Fishermead, the Lakes Estate and Far Bletchley were next in the list – which can be found at www.onemk.co.uk

Meanwhile, Oakgrove was the only housing estate without a reported anti-social incident in the whole of July.

Alan Francis, a councillor on New Bradwell Parish Council who has lived on the estate for more than 25 years, was surprised by the statistics.

He said: "We haven't heard any further reports of anti-social behaviour than has been the case for many years. It's a pleasant place to live."

And Jeanette Marling, the chairman of the Lakes Estate Residents Association – which came fifth overall – said: "This comes back to funding. Quite often young people have nowhere else to go other than the streets.

"It is why we are trying to build somewhere for them to go, but there isn't the money to do it. It's important to remember it's not always children though."

Crime scene: Police cordoned off the area on Thursday. It has now been lifted

Town in shock after stabbing

BY JESSICA DUNCAN
jessica.duncan@mk-news.co.uk

RESIDENTS have been left in shock after a 34-year-old man was stabbed in broad daylight in their town.

The incident happened in The Gables, Wolverton, just off St Georges Way, at about 4pm on Thursday and the area was cordoned off by police who were only letting residents through.

On Friday, Ulrich Nzi, 22, of no fixed abode, was charged with one count of wounding with intent.

Rose Doolan, 48, who lives in the town and was on her way to visit her sister who lives in the same street, said: "For this to be right on your doorstep is so unexpected and it's just crazy."

Wolverton and Greenleys Town Council chairman Ansar Hussain missed the start of his council meeting on Thursday to see if he could help residents and was shocked such an incident had happened.

"It's shocking and you are surprised it has happened in your community," he said.

"It makes the community more sensitive and worried and it feels a bit scary."

Another resident, who did not want to be named, said: "I'm a bit wary and the incident has made that worse – particularly when I'm going to be coming and going late at night and early in the morning for my shift work.

"I don't like going to my car at night anyway so this will make it worse."

The victim was taken to Milton Keynes University Hospital with injuries believed to be life-threatening. He remained in a critical condition at the time of going to press last night.

Resident Philip Gammage commented: "It wasn't a nice time for this to happen as it was just when the kids got out of school."

Mr Nzi is due to appear at Aylesbury Crown Court on Monday.

Shop loses appeal for alcohol licence

THE manager of Bletchley Mini Market in Fenny Stratford has lost his appeal to retain his licence to sell alcohol after Milton Keynes Magistrates agreed to revoke it last Wednesday.

The licence was originally revoked by the licensing sub-committee at Milton Keynes Council in January but licence holder Sabir Khan appealed against the decision.

Speaking to Mr Khan following the appeal he said: "I am really sad that my appeal has been rejected. It could cause my business to close."

Tributes for city alderman

TRIBUTES have been paid to alderman and former Conservative councillor Henry Powell-Shennden, who has died aged 72.

Mr Powell-Shennden was a councillor at Buckinghamshire County Council from 1973 to 1983 and represented the Newport Pagnell ward where he had a farm. He was made an alderman by the council in recognition of his service.

Cllr Andy Dransfield, who knew him for 30 years, said: "He was well respected and very intelligent.

"He was also quite eccentric and the church was standing room only at his funeral."

Shortlisted: The lime tree at Linford Manor Park

Tree is up for top title

A LIME tree in the grounds of Linford Manor Park has been shortlisted by the Woodland Trust in its Tree of the Year contest and is pitted against nine others from across England.

The winning tree from each European country will be put forward for the European Tree of the Year title in 2016.

Rob Riekie, landscape and operations director at The Parks Trust, which looks after the park, said: "The tree was part of a country estate's grand design in the 1700s and was standing tall when in 1810 the Grand Union Canal was dug next to its spreading roots."

Blocks of flats to be revamped

BY JAMES AVERILL

james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

BLOCKS of long-neglected flats will have £600,000 spent on improving them.

The work on the flats in West Bletchley, confirmed at a Milton Keynes Council cabinet meeting, will take place at Beaulieu House (Torre Close), Crowland House (Shaftesbury Crescent), Cumberland House (Middlesex Drive), Kent House (Surrey Place) and Salop House, Westmorland House and Antrim House (all in Forfar Drive).

The work will include refurbishing external balconies, replacing ground floor concrete slabs, repairing first floor concrete slabs and new waterproof coatings and handrails.

Work has started on seven blocks and should be completed in three further phases over the next few years.

West Bletchley ward councillor Nigel Long said: "Work has started on phase one of work to improve 25 blocks of flats.

"These have been neglected in recent years and I am pleased the council has confirmed this spending in the current year (2015-16).

"I have been looking at the work already started and it is going to make a big difference. They will be safer, more secure homes with the external work, such as improved balconies, helping to modernise the look of the blocks.

"I was delighted to support the extra funding."

Singers: We are already winners

BY JAMES AVERILL

TWO men from Milton Keynes could be the first gay couple to win The X Factor – but feel they may have achieved their original aim already.

Married Chris Kennedy, 28, and Gabriel Cabrera, 32, won acclaim from both the audience and judges after their audition as The Shures was broadcast on the ITV1 show on Saturday.

Their performance of Love Me Like You Do by Ellie Goulding received four yeses from the judges.

"It's been amazing and we have had really good and positive feedback from lots of different people," said Chris.

"We were walking down the road and a lady came up to us and recognised us. It's something we have had to get used to."

Having a gay role model in music was something the married couple wished they had as youngsters.

Gabriel said: "Ultimately that's what we wanted when we were growing up. We wish we had someone to look up to in the industry.

"When we entered the competition it wasn't about getting through or winning, it was about having that platform and just being the first to do it.

"You get your haters and your homophobes, you get people that don't accept this lifestyle and we respect that, we were ready for it and we are still ready to deal with them."

But the couple also don't want their sexuality to distract from their talent. And although The Shures have made it through to boot camp, they are unsure how much further they will progress, but feel as if they have already achieved their goal.

Chris said: "The point of us going on the show wasn't about us being a gay married couple, the point was to go out there and be what we are and to have the same shot as everyone."

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Billy Harley feels that it's all about service. 'Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 5 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole.'

Cloudy2Clear service the Bedford, Milton Keynes & Leighton Buzzard areas and Billy is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success. 'The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated.'

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Billy a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Preservation work: The remains of St Peter's Church have been saved as part of the development of Stanton Low Park

Work preserves church remains

BY SCOTT KIRK
scott.kirk@mk-news.co.uk

THE remains of a 12th century church, which served the former community of Stanton Low until the 1950s, has been carefully preserved for future generations.

A year-long conservation project by the Save St Peter's Church Society and Milton Keynes Council was funded by £50,000 Section 106 money made available from the Oakridge Park development.

Work by J B Specialist Refurbishments included stabilising the walls, repointing the stones, rebuilding walls and boundary walls that had collapsed, recapping the top of walls and extensive landscaping.

One wall section with an angled window called the 'squint', vandalised in recent years, was painstakingly rebuilt using photographs collected by members of the society.

An official event to mark completion of the work took place during National Heritage Week.

Cllr Liz Gifford, the council's cabinet member for heritage, said: "We're delighted to have been able to restore and make safe these ruins to create a visitor attraction in Stanton Low Park which draws on the heritage of the area.

"We hope members of the local community and beyond will visit and enjoy this historic site, made possible as a result of funding from the Oakridge Park development."

Excellent Value - Quality Care

A further boosts for the Theatre District

BY JAMES AVERILL
james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

THE Theatre District is being 'revived' with two new restaurants and bars set to open at the beginning of October.

The district has remained unfinished since opening in 1999 and in recent years has been in need of investment to rejuvenate it.

In March a new £20million redevelopment was granted permission by Milton Keynes council to include a 130-room Premier Inn hotel and 2,500 square feet of retail.

And with MK Social already proving a popular new addition since opening in November, more restaurants and bars have come forward to move in.

Cuban bar and grill Revolución de Cuba is set to open within the next two weeks and has already employed 75 people.

Clinton Ghent, area and brand manager of Revolución, said: "The Theatre District is a great location and there are lots of exciting changes taking place.

"Our arrival will be a major start to bringing new life to this area and giving people an exciting new place to visit."

Opening soon: New Cuban bar and grill Revolución de Cuba

Also moving in is Rowland Omamor, 41, who will open his independent African cuisine restaurant Big Momma's on October 1.

Rowland is familiar with the area through a previous job with David Lloyd Leisure.

He said: "For me it seemed like a good idea. It's central, close to the shops and there's free parking after 6pm. I was also aware of Revolución de Cuba coming in and that there are plans to build a hotel. So it seems like there is a lot of money being spent reviving it."

The final phase of the Theatre District will be developed by UGS MK and its parent company Bursha Holdings.

Jack Paravicini, portfolio manager at Bursha Holdings, said: "We're keen to create a 'family friendly' area with a vibrant daytime and evening economy that increases footfall and supports the adjacent gallery and theatre."

Care home needs to improve – CQC

BY PHILIP MCELENEY
editor@mk-news.co.uk

A CARE home has been told it 'requires improvement' in a report by the Care Quality Commission (CQC), which found the services were not always safe.

The CQC found CRG Homecare Milton Keynes – which is in Bletchley – was not always effective or well led and required improvements in these areas.

But the report did admit new systems have been put in place by the care home, although it was too early to tell if these made a difference.

CRG Homecare has said the new changes are positive.

The report said: "People were not protected from abuse and improper treatment as systems and processes were not established and operated effectively. The provider did not have systems in place to report incidents appropriately."

The CQC's report also had positive comments – rating the care home as 'good' in its 'caring' and 'responsive' sections and said there were positive relations between patients and staff and the care home provided personalised care.

CRG Homecare hope the changes it has made will improve its future ratings.

Heidi Waring, CRG Homecare's head of operations, said: "We were disappointed that CQC felt unable to recognise if the new changes were effective as they were newly introduced, but we look forward to an excellent rating during our next inspection."

Pair sent to jail for robbery bid

BY CHRIS KNIGHT
editor@mk-news.co.uk

A PAIR of would-be robbers have been sent to prison for offences committed in a village.

Jonathan Atanda, 23, of no fixed address, and Peter Shaw, 29, from Redhuish Close, Furzton, attempted to commit robbery at a house on September 25, 2013.

They knocked at the door of the house in Shenley Church End before pinning to the ground and punching and kicking a man and a woman aged in their 60s.

The two ran away when they were disturbed by a third occupant of the house who was upstairs.

Atanda was found guilty by a jury at a hearing at Aylesbury Crown Court on Friday, September 11, of two counts of attempted robbery on the male and female victims.

He was sentenced to 11 years' imprisonment for the offences, to run concurrently. Atanda had been interviewed by police on October 25, 2013 and charged on June 24, 2014.

Shaw pleaded guilty on January 21 to two counts of attempted burglary involving the two victims and was sentenced that day to seven years' imprisonment for both offences, to run concurrently.

He had been arrested on October 21, 2013 and charged on June 26, 2014.

Det Con Graeme Poulton, from Bletchley police, said: "This was a traumatic incident for the victims and I hope they will find some comfort in the sentencing of Atanda and the sentencing earlier this year of Shaw.

"I would like to reassure the local community that crimes of this nature are rare but if anyone has any concerns please contact the local neighbourhood policing team on 101."

Leader hits back at 'illegal move'

MILTON Keynes Council leader Pete Marland has spoken out about opposition claims a proposal by the authority on tackling homelessness in the city is illegal.

Last Monday's cabinet meeting was due to discuss a £5million investment into 70 properties for homeless people. But the item was removed from the agenda at the last minute after Conservative criticism.

Conservative leader Edith Bald claimed the proposal was illegal, but now Cllr Marland has dismissed the suggestion.

He said: "I'm confident it's legal but it is unusual. These comments from the Conservatives have been made right at the last minute.

"There is a huge difference between illegal and being contrary to council policy. We have to amend the policy to bring this in, that's why it was due to be discussed."

The proposal – which is now due to be discussed at a meeting in October – will try and help to improve the homeless problem in Milton Keynes, both through extra accommodation and trying to tackle the issues at the root causes.

Cllr Marland said: "The situation with regards to homelessness is that we have 140 homeless people in bed and breakfasts at the moment but we are looking at 70 properties for people to live in.

"But we also want to provide them with skills that tackle the cause of homelessness."

The Labour-led administration was criticised by the Conservatives who claim homelessness has tripled under Labour. The party also claims the £5million investment is in 'a risky property fund'.

Cllr Bald said: "Labour had been working on these proposals for seven months, it took us 14 days to realise what they were trying to do was illegal.

"I am extremely concerned, when local Government budgets are so tight, that they are being so cavalier with the public's finances."

First meeting for new group

A GROUP set up by Milton Keynes Council to look at potential solutions to the city's homeless problem met for the first time last week.

The homelessness task and finish group will look at the issue of homelessness before reporting back to the council's cabinet to help in future decisions on housing.

The group is made up of six councillors from across three different political parties and is chaired by Councillor Chris Williams. He said: "As far as I'm concerned this council has to look at all homelessness not just those they are responsible for. Whatever it is we need to find solutions."

Councillor Douglas McCall, who also works for Winter Night Shelter, is part of the working group. He said: "I think it's important to look at the whole scope of homelessness."

Homeless drug abuse 'serious'

BY JESSICA DUNCAN
jessica.duncan@mk-news.co.uk

OPEN Door MK has raised concerns over homeless people with drug addictions in Milton Keynes and claims it is a serious problem.

Brenda Mosedale, chairman of trustees at the charity that helps the homeless, spoke to MK NEWS following a case at Milton Keynes Magistrates' Court.

During the hearing on September 3, homeless Gareth Turp, 32, pleaded guilty to stealing sunglasses from Boots in the centre:mk and admitted it was to fund his drug addiction.

Mrs Mosedale, pictured, said: "It is a serious problem in Milton Keynes and when homeless people with addictions come to us we put them in contact with Compass, which is the main service in the city that deals with adult drug use.

"Compass runs programmes to help people but it is a big problem which Milton Keynes Council has admitted.

"Some cities and towns have lots of different programmes to help homeless people with drug addictions but Milton Keynes has one service and not lots of separate agencies. Open Door tries to be an avenue in and has drop-in clinics for people who want help."

Compass, which works with Milton Keynes Council, is a leading national provider of services to tackle problem drug and alcohol use and works with adults and young people in the city.

Thames Valley Police says there is no evidence that the problem in Milton Keynes is any different to other areas.

Inspector Sue Usher, Neighbourhood Inspector for Milton Keynes city centre, said: "There is no evidence to suggest that Milton Keynes is any worse than other large towns. Thames Valley Police works with other agencies through the Rough Sleepers Group to engage with the homeless community and direct them to support and voluntary services."

Reassurance over decision on refugees

A COUNCILLOR has insisted Milton Keynes Council's decision to accept its 'fair share' of refugees will not have a negative impact on the city's homeless.

Councillor Douglas McCall, leader of the Liberal Democrat group, proposed the motion that was passed last Wednesday.

It means the council will advise the Government that the city will commit to receive and support its 'fair share' of refugee families.

Cllr McCall said: "It should have no impact on our own homeless people. People are offering rooms in their own homes and the Government is giving us money from the Foreign Aid budget to use to rent property."

Armed burglar sent to prison by a judge

BY CHRIS KNIGHT
editor@mk-news.co.uk

A KNIFE-WIELDING burglar has been sentenced to more than two years in prison.

Terence Planner, 40, of no fixed address, entered the garden of a house at about 11.15am on September 2.

After breaking into a shed and taking tools and other items, he smashed a window and stole valuable jewellery and watches as well as items of sentimental value from the home in Oakgrove.

He attempted to escape through the back garden but was arrested by police.

On searching him, officers found Planner with stolen property and a large knife, which he had taken with him.

Jailed: Terence Planner

Planner was sentenced at Aylesbury Crown Court on September 14 to two years and six months in prison for burglary and possession of a knife.

Investigating officer, Det Con Scott Dempsey, based at Milton Keynes Police Station, said: "Planner had chosen a house in a quiet residential area armed with a large knife and forced his way into a family home in broad daylight.

"But a member of the public raised the alarm to the ongoing burglary.

"Our officers reacted quickly in order to catch Planner red-handed.

"The length of the sentence given by the judge in this case demonstrates the seriousness of the offence and should act as a deterrent to others that this kind of crime will not be tolerated."

Plans to build hundreds of homes

NEARLY 300 homes could be built near Wavendon.

JB Planning Associates, on behalf of The Fairways Partnership, will submit a planning application for up to 240 properties on land just north of The Stables, next to Stockwell Lane and Newport Road.

The homes would have garages and parking and there will be provision for public open space as well as new vehicular and pedestrian accesses.

In 2013 the partnership submitted a screening opinion request to evaluate whether the land was suitable to build on – although there were originally plans for 300 homes.

The application will be just one of several larger proposals for new housing in the Wavendon area.

HOW TO AVOID LOSING LOTS OF MONEY ON YOUR SHARES

It never ceases to amaze me when people invest all of their life's savings into one company and are then surprised when that one company fails and they lose all of their money! It's called having all of your eggs in one basket!

I recently watched a Youtube video of an investor who put all of his savings into buying Blockbusters shares in November 2013. He was convinced that since Blockbuster was a large company, it could never go bust and that he was virtually guaranteed to double his money. He was going to spend his profit on buying a new car. In his mind he had already bought it. The company went bust! Forgive the pun.

In recent years we've had a number of large company failures such as JJB Sports, Woolworths, Blockbusters, HMV (well nearly) and recently Phones4U. The reason why private investors lose all of their savings is always the same. They invest 100% of their spare cash into one company. Really this approach is akin to gambling.

Tony Byrne
Financial Planning Director
Wealth And Tax Management

As a firm we don't believe in gambling or in get rich quick schemes. Instead we use an investment process called The Wealth Investment Strategy or WIS for short. It is a risk-controlled investment strategy. It has produced average returns of 10.1% a year for medium risk investors over the last 20 years. We prefer to describe it as a "Get rich slow" scheme. It is a system which invests in a widely diversified range of assets from cash and bonds to property and shares. In other words we most certainly do not recommend putting all of your eggs in one basket!

Most people we come across are risk averse with a conservative attitude to investment risk. They accept there will be some fluctuations in the value of their investments much the same as there are fluctuations in house price values. They do want their money to grow, to keep pace with and to beat inflation and to comfortably outperform bank interest rates. They love WIS. Don't just take my word for it. Visit our website and watch the many client video testimonials about our service.

One Stop tills to ring again

BY JAMES AVERILL
james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

THE Tesco Express store in Springfield will be closed at the end of October and revert back to a One Stop shop.

The store is popular with nearby residents and workers as it is quicker to get to than the major Tesco store in Kingston.

Tesco has given no reason for the closure but staff will be able to join the team at One Stop or move to another Tesco store when it shuts on October 25.

But one staff member told MK NEWS: "The lease was up for renewal and we weren't generating enough profit as other stores. So Tesco took the unfortunate decision to not renew the lease, leading to One Stop buying it from us."

One Stop remains a subsidiary of Tesco having been bought by the supermarket giant in 2003. However, a number of shoppers aren't happy as the company has been criticised for charging higher prices for similar products in its One Stop shops than in its Tesco stores.

Closing: The Tesco Express store in Springfield will be changing back to a One Stop shop at the end of next month

One shopper, Chris Fodden, said: "I can't say I am looking forward to having a One Stop instead of a Tesco, I'm anticipating higher prices and less choice."

A Tesco spokesman said: "We are converting the Tesco Express in Springfield into a One Stop, which will continue to serve the local community with great food at great prices. Our Tesco colleagues will have the opportunity to join the One Stop team, or join our other Tesco stores in the area.

"We are proud to have served our customers and the local community and would like to thank them for shopping with us. We would like to thank the local community and our customers for their patience while the changes are taking place."

MK Job Show: About 100,000 visitors and 90 organisations speaking to potential employees made the event the best yet, according to organisers

10,000 jobs on offer

BY JAMES AVERILL
james@averill@mk-news.co.uk

ABOUT 100,000 people are thought to have attended the biggest jobs show in the region.

The MK Job Show saw more than 90 organisations speaking to potential employees and offering up to 10,000 jobs.

The show, held in Middleton Hall at the centre:mk and backed by MK NEWS, attracted people from across the Midlands who were searching for their next big move on the career ladder, or a route into employment.

The event was free to attend with booths available for organisations to interview people at the event, while seminars and workshops were held offering advice on how to improve CVs.

One job hunter, 22-year-old Sam Davies, said: "It has been quite difficult to get a job, so having an event like this is really important and hopefully I'll get something from it."

There was even a celebrity guest, as ITV breakfast TV presenter Lorraine Kelly turned up to help out the Avon store in their recruitment drive and to hear some of the success stories of women workers.

Now in its fourth year, the two day event – which was held on Friday and Saturday – has been hailed as the 'best yet'.

The event's director, Mike Bickerdike, said: "I think it was our best yet. There were a lot of big national companies who were looking for fresh new talent.

"Our sponsors and Milton Keynes Council have been incredibly supportive."

And Pam Gosal, head of corporate economic development and inward investment at the council, told MK NEWS: "It was busier and better than ever before and there were a lot of jobs on offer.

"It was so diverse, there were jobs from public and private companies, through to retail and engineering.

"Milton Keynes is known throughout the UK for its job growth and it has become the only job show to come to throughout this whole region."

New life: volunteers turned up to repair old BBC micro-computers at The National Museum of Computing

Reboot for micros

BY SCOTT KIRK
scott.kirk@mk-news.co.uk

A CRACK team of volunteers descended on The National Museum of Computing (TNMOC) at Bletchley Park to restore 1980s BBC micro-computers.

TNMOC had expected about 20 machines to be restored, but the team was so skilled, dedicated and efficient the museum exhausted its store of spares by the time 36 had been rebooted.

The team of 20 skilled enthusiasts, male and female, ranged in age from a teenager to seniors. They had come from as far away as Wales, Essex and Surrey to use their expertise to help the next generation of would-be coders. The team members had been responding to an appeal in June by the museum for volunteers to help bring donated BBC micros back to life.

Owen Grover, TNMOC's technical support officer who organised the day, was delighted with the result.

"The atmosphere was great and the results far exceeded our expectations," he said.

"As anticipated, the most common fault we encountered in these incredibly robust 1980s machines were failed power supplies.

"But we also found that many of the machines that had been donated to TNMOC over the years had been enhanced by their original owners, something that was very popular in the early days of computing when machine innards were much more accessible. So we had to remove added ROM chips and external jacks fitted for better speakers and headphones to make the machines more reliable."

The restored machines are now ready to replace any malfunctioning machines in TNMOC's classroom where thousands of students have an introduction to computer coding each year.

£5K grants to bring city improvements

BY JESSICA DUNCAN
jessica.duncan@mk-news.co.uk

A NEW competition is being launched today to encourage people to come up with ideas to make Milton Keynes a smarter and greener city.

The Citizen Ideas Competition is looking for ideas that help improve the sustainability of transport, water and energy use, health and the environment within the city.

There will be £5,000 grants up for grabs to help people turn their ideas into a reality.

Some ideas that have already been put forward on the Our MK website include, a 'Ripe Near Me' app for sharing foraging information around the city, deploying solar panels for domestic lighting and a London Tube – style map for the redways and underpasses.

Our MK is part of the MK:Smart project, a collaborative initiative using big data to address some of the city's key sustainability issues and make MK a Smart City.

Dr Daniel Gooch, who is working on the MK:Smart project at the Open University in MK, said: "Our MK offers a great opportunity for citizens to improve the communities they live in.

"In addition to the funding, we are offering expert support and advice to make the best use of the resources of the MK:Smart project."

Residents can attend the launch event tonight at The Pinnacle from 6pm – 8pm.

Year of water ends with hot chocolate

BY PHILIP MCELENEY
editor@mk-news.co.uk

A LAY minister who spent a year drinking only water to raise money for his church finally finished his challenge on Monday – and did so in style.

Jeff Newall took part in a 'year of water' challenge to help raise funds for Christ the Vine Community Church in Coffee Hall.

After a long 12 months, Mr Newall celebrated with friends and family by drinking a monster hot chocolate with all the toppings.

Mr Newall, from Two Mile Ash, said: "It was very nice and very tasty. There were people there from the church and the wider community of Woughton, as well as my wife, and they have been very supportive."

The church has currently raised £13,000 towards the £60,000 it needs to replace the roof – all from private donations from people like Mr Newall, who raised £2,044 with his drinking challenge.

Challenge: Jeff Newall enjoying his hot chocolate with cream

"This was a way of raising money without putting undue pressure on people around me – nobody was having to pay anything because the money was coming from me," he said.

"If I went out for a meal or a drink then instead of a coffee, a Coke or a beer I would donate the cost of the drink I would have had and had water instead."

After completing the challenge, Mr Newall doesn't plan on doing another any time soon.

He said: "I was glad the end came. Someone said to me in church after the service on Sunday that I must be counting the hours down.

"I've now been asked 'what's the next challenge?' but I think we will give them a miss for a while."

Looking back over 30 years

WHEN you've led as eventful a life as Michael Palin, a show looking back at the last 30 years of your life is sure to be jam-packed.

His show is largely based on the diaries which detail his earliest steps in Monty Python, the change of career to TV presenting and then right back to where it started at the comedy group's reunion last year.

"It covers the birth of Monty Python and some of the big journeys I've done," Michael told MK LIFE.

"It's a look back on my life – but I promise there are some surprises for the audience who might know lots about me!"

Speaking about his work with the Monty Python team, he added: "Although we were very different people coming from different lifestyles, when we got together to write comedy it just clicked.

"We got a cult audience among students and we built on that and then when we broke in America that was a very big development for Monty Python because it's such a big audience."

More Python stories, as well as anecdotes from his personal life and rarely told stories from the entertainment industry, make for an autobiography live on stage with pictures, videos and lots of laughs.

Michael Palin: The Thirty Year Tour will be at Milton Keynes Theatre at 7.30pm on Wednesday, September 30. Tickets cost from £33.40 at www.atgtickets.com

TOP class rugby in Milton Keynes does not end with the world cup – Northampton Saints are back at stadiummk to open their Aviva Premiership home campaign against Newcastle Falcons.

The Aviva Premiership is where you will see the stars of the Rugby World Cup shine once the tournament is over and the Saints have been one of the league's most successful teams over the past few years, lifting the trophy in 2014 and topping the table in 2015.

On October 24 they return to Milton Keynes, a few months after lighting up stadiummk in a dramatic win over Saracens. This time it is the Falcons who are the visitors, and the two sides scored more than 150 tries between them in 2014/15.

This is a game not to be missed and we've teamed up with the Saints to offer 20 lucky readers the opportunity to win a pair of tickets.

To be in with a chance of winning, simply answer the following question:

Who did the Saints beat during their last performance at stadiummk?

A) Saracens
B) London Irish
C) Wasps

AMY Converse, from Vets4Pets in Bletchley, talks about the strong bond between humans and their pets

THE bond between humans and animals is one of the most important and profound connections that we can experience.

This bond grows out of humans seeing their pets as a valued member of the family as that animal provides unconditional love and companionship.

This tie is mutually beneficial, however, as it also benefits the animal. Our bond with animals has been present for thousands of years.

Ownership of animals gives us a chance to love and socialise, encourage touch and increase exercise. Animals provide assistance to those with disabilities or special needs and can help with mental health disorders by improving brain chemistry.

And 39 per cent of London's pet owners bought their pet for companionship, despite having 7.5million neighbours across the city!

DOUG Scott made the first ascent of the massive south west face of Everest 40 years ago and the mountain climber will be holding a lecture to celebrate his experiences at the Chrysalis Theatre.

Mr Scott was joined by the late Dougal Haston on what is considered 'the hard way up' the mountain in Nepal.

This will be an incredibly personal account of what it takes to climb one of the toughest mountains in the world and will be beautifully illustrated with his photography.

The event will take place on Saturday and tickets cost £15 for adults and £12 for concessions from www.chrysalismk.co.uk

Introducing The Bentley Bentayga

Bentley Motors has announced full details of its pinnacle, sector-defining new model, the Bentayga which combines unparalleled luxury with effortless performance and everyday usability. With an all-new W12 powertrain, the Bentayga is the fastest, most powerful, most luxurious and most exclusive SUV in the world. It offers a true Bentley driving experience and showcases innovative technology features.

Designed, engineered and handcrafted in Crewe, the Bentayga's styling is pure Bentley. Sculptural with an elegant, timeless execution, it perfectly balances athleticism with confidence. From the four round LED headlamps and large matrix grille, to the distinctive power line and muscular haunches, the Bentley DNA is apparent throughout.

The Bentley Bentayga boasts the world's finest automotive cabin, with unrivalled levels of precision. The detailing in metal, wood and leather – including meticulous tolerances between elements of trim – is the epitome of modern British luxury.

An all-new twin-turbocharged 6.0-litre W12 engine is at the heart of the new Bentayga. The mighty 12-cylinder unit combines efficiency and refinement with ultra-luxurious levels of power and torque. With 608 PS (600 bhp / 447kW) and 900 Nm (663 lb. ft) delivering a 0-60 mph time of 4.0 seconds (0-100 km/h in 4.1 seconds) and a top speed of 187 mph (301 km/h), the Bentayga is the world's most powerful and fastest SUV.

A suite of state-of-the-art driver assistance systems and infotainment features designed to enhance safety, comfort and convenience make the Bentayga an innovative, advanced and connected luxury SUV.

Innovative systems available on the Bentayga include Electronic Night Vision, which uses infra-red technology to identify potential obstacles ahead, and a Head-Up Display, which reduces driver distraction and increases safety. The Bentayga's all-new, cutting-edge 8" touch screen infotainment system boasts class-leading navigation technology, a 60GB hard drive, and a choice of up to 30 languages. Rear seat passengers benefit from the introduction of the Bentley Entertainment Tablet – a removable 10.2" Android device with 4G, WiFi and Bluetooth for effortless, high-speed on-board connectivity.

Customers can choose between three different sound systems for the Bentayga: Bentley Standard Audio, Bentley Signature Audio and Naim for Bentley Premium Audio. The latter is the most powerful system in the segment, with 1,950 watts, a network of 18 speakers and super-tweeters for unrivalled recreation of the highest audio frequencies.

A combination of advanced design, innovative engineering and state-of-the-art manufacturing technologies - including the use of lightweight aluminium - has enabled a total weight saving of 236kg compared to a traditional body construction.

Step inside the new Bentayga and you find the finest automotive interior in the world, with handcrafted wood and leather throughout – engineered with precision to deliver absolute perfection. The attention to detail in metal, wood and leather is the epitome of modern British luxury, and is only achievable thanks to the exceptional skill of the workforce in Crewe.

Sumptuous front seats, individually handcrafted in Crewe and featuring 22-way adjustment including adjustable cushion and backrest bolsters, provide superb support and comfort for all conditions. This cosseted feeling is further enhanced with a six-programme massage system, seat heating and ventilation.

Whether selected in four or five-seat configuration, all of the leather seats in the Bentayga are available with contrast stitching and a quilted diamond design applied to the 'shoulders' and bolsters, echoing the design of a finely tailored British hunting jacket.

Never before has a vehicle so coherently combined genuine luxury with go-anywhere driving ability. The development programme for the Bentayga has been the most exhaustive in the Bentley brand's history, ranging across five continents. From the dirt and gravel of South Africa and the dunes of Dubai, to the muddy fields of Cheshire, and from -30°C in the frozen North Cape to searing 50°C desert heat, the Bentayga's ability to perform on any surface and even in the most extreme conditions has been proven.

The Bentayga redefines personalisation and bespoke luxury. Paint, leather, veneer and lifestyle options are unlimited and tailored to the individual. As with all Bentleys, the Bentayga can also be handed over to the highly skilled and dedicated craftspeople at Mulliner, who will respond to bespoke customer requirements. The Bentayga made its full public debut at the IAA Frankfurt Show from 15 to 27 September. Customer deliveries commence in early 2016.

Suzuki Vitara

PURA VITA

The Vitara, Suzuki's latest compact crossover, aims to build a lot of talent into four metres. With a choice of petrol or diesel, front or all-wheel drive and styling that's more assured than anything Suzuki has brought us before, it looks to be a competitive proposition

The mechanicals aren't anything too surprising, shared as they are with the existing SX-4 S-Cross. That means buyers get to choose between either a 1.6-litre petrol engine or a much preferable Fiat-sourced 118bhp 1.6 diesel, both being offered in front or four-wheel drive guises. The petrol engine is fitted with a five-speed manual gearbox as standard with an optional CVT transmission also offered. Go diesel and you get a six-speed manual 'box. The short overhangs will help with off-roading but the 185mm ground clearance isn't that generous.

The ALLGRIP four-wheel-drive transmission features an electronically controlled clutch pack, controlled by a four-position switch on the centre console. Choose 'Auto' and it'll stick to driving the front wheels unless slip is detected, whereupon the rear wheels are pressed into action. 'Sport' diverts up to 20 per cent of torque to the rear wheels to give livelier handling. 'Snow' offers permanent four-wheel drive with the system choosing how much torque to split front and rear, while 'Lock' splits the torque equally between front and rear.

With tight proportions and a front end that has more than a hint of current Land Rover design about it, the Vitara is quite an assured piece of design work. There's also a blacked-out floating glasshouse, heavily sculpted flanks and a very neat tail-lamp finish. Buyers can also specify a rugged package which adds front and rear skidplates as well as additional body side mouldings.

Suzuki cabins have long been the marque's weak link but this Vitara shows the company pulling its socks up a bit. Okay, so the idea of body-coloured metal across the dash isn't a new one (many of you will recall the Fiat Coupe mining that trend way back in '93) but Suzuki also offers chrome around the gearlever and door trims, plus an analogue clock. It's by no means a large vehicle, breaking the tape at just over four metres long, but still features a features a 375-litre boot. That's competitive with the rival Renault Captur, although the Suzuki lacks the Renault's sliding rear bench seats.

The portents look promising for this Vitara. Pricing, after all, pitches this car against much less capable crossover models. If you want a vehicle of this kind that's fashionable without being fake, this Suzuki might certainly appeal. For success here,

Suzuki will have to contend with the usual issues, namely a small dealer network, a modest promotional budget and the vagaries of fluctuating exchange rates. All of that can be overcome if the basic product is strong enough though - and in this case, it seems to be. Sales of the SX4 S-Cross have been modest to date, so the company will be hoping that the look and feel of the Vitara will turn the heads of a new group of buyers. It's in there with a real chance.

Renault Reveals Dynamically Styled, High Tech New Megane

The dynamic-looking, high-quality, All-New Mégane – loaded with technology features from higher-segment cars – is Renault's star attraction at this year's IAA in Frankfurt. Alongside a range of highly-efficient petrol and diesel engines, it will be available from launch as a GT created in association with Renaultsport. A 'Hybrid Assist' diesel will be added in 2017. The new Mégane goes on sale in mainland Europe early next year with UK deliveries anticipated in the summer.

SEAT Unveils New Mii FR Line And Latest Mii By Mango Limited Edition

Every SEAT Mii is a fashion statement. However, the new Mii by MANGO Limited Edition shows particularly individual style with its unique accessories – and just 750 of them will go on sale across Europe. They are recognisable at first sight from the exclusive three-coat paintwork in "Oryx white", with the door mirrors and wheels finished in a powerful, deep shade of red called "Velvet". Exterior details will be matching in some interior details, like the steering wheel, air vents and instrument panel. The sporty character of the Mii is especially enhanced in the likewise new SEAT Mii FR Line. This new version is recognisable on the outside through its exclusive 16-inch alloy wheels, Atom Grey door mirrors, exclusive trim strips and, naturally, the FR logo in the grille. Setting the FR Line apart are its sporty suspension tuning, plus a sporty black interior, featuring high-gloss and red accents as well as unique sports seats with piping and FR logo and leather steering wheel with red contrasting stitching

Jeep Renegade Marks One Year

FIAT Chrysler Automobiles is celebrating the first year of Jeep Renegade production with a new virtual factory visit tool, accessible via Google™ Maps. Launched exactly a year ago, the Jeep Renegade was a ground-breaking vehicle for the brand in that it was the brand's first ever compact SUV and also the first Jeep vehicle built in Europe. Today, more than 135,000 Renegade units have rolled off the Melfi production line in Italy so far, contributing in no small way to the Jeep brand's continuing growth, having achieved its most successful sales year ever in 2014 with more than one million units sold. More recently, Jeep has enjoyed its best August sales month ever in North America while in Europe Jeep is the region's fastest-growing automotive brand so far in 2015, with the new Renegade already established as a best seller in Italy, France and Austria.

DS Automobiles' Three World Firsts

With its DS 4 Crossback Concept, New DS 4 & DS 4 Crossback and the DSV-01 Formula E car, DS Automobiles is on the offensive at the 2015 Frankfurt Motor Show. The DS stand represents a product and technology offensive, with new models and an expanded connectivity offering with the arrival of Apple CarPlay™ on DS Connect. Visitors are also able to see Baby DS, star of the new DS Connect adverts. In a setting that will showcase elegance, French expertise, technology and the avant-garde spirit, the DS Automobiles stand is a must-see at the 66th International Motor Show in Frankfurt.

British Car Makers Unite!

The UK car industry united on Thursday 10th September, for a unique send-off ahead of one of the world's most influential motor shows – and the biggest in Europe. In an extraordinary gathering in Greenwich, London, senior executives from across the industry were joined by Business Secretary SajidJavid, alongside 10 of their most exciting new cars now flying the British flag at this year's Frankfurt International Motor Show. Vehicles from the broad spectrum of Britain's thriving automotive industry were on display, from volume-produced family hatchbacks to high-end luxury and sports models. The global appetite for high-quality British-built cars has never been stronger with exports to more than 100 countries worldwide. Demand across Europe grew more than 10% last year, and overall car exports were worth £24.6 billion in 2014 – the most ever.

Nissan Gripz Concept Makes Global Debut

Designed to build on Nissan's pioneering Crossover leadership, Nissan's Gripz Concept has made its global premiere at the Frankfurt Motor Show. Inspiration for the Nissan Gripz Concept came from the legendary 240Z desert racers as well as the sleek two-wheel world of road cycling. The design explores a new sporty direction for a Crossover concept and was conceived to create an innovative new driving sensation. The world premiere took place at the Nissan stand on September 15th, 2015. Stay tuned for more innovative Crossover thinking from Nissan.

Ice action: MK Lightning went down to Sheffield Steeldogs 5-4

Lightning strike back after Steeldogs defeat

BY JACK ASH
editor@mk-news.co.uk

MK LIGHTNING recovered from a defeat by Sheffield Steeldogs to secure their second victory of the season against Peterborough Phantoms.

Four goals in seven minutes by the Steeldogs in the middle period at the MK Arena was too much for Lightning to come back from on Saturday evening as they went down 5-4.

Grant McPherson gave Lightning the perfect start putting his side one up within two minutes.

That was quickly ruled out by Steeldogs' forward Steve Duncombe but Lightning's Lewis Hook put his side back in the front before mayhem broke out on the ice.

Arnoldas Bosas, ex-Milton Keynes star Blaz Lascek and two from Lubomir Korhon gave Lightning too much to do as they soared to a 5-2 lead.

Markku Tahtinen and Leigh Jamieson got two back for MK Lightning but it was too little, too late for boss Pete Russell.

But MK Lightning got back to winning ways the following day with Hook, Tahtinen and a double from Adam Carr giving them a 4-3 victory in overtime at Peterborough Phantoms.

The Phantoms goals came from Darius Pliskauskas, Marc Levers and Milan Baranyk and leaves Lightning in sixth place in the English Premier Ice Hockey League.

The side get back on the ice at MK Arena on Saturday when they host Telford Tigers before making the long trip to bottom side Hull Pirates the following day.

TABLE TENNIS

Baggaley is quietly confident

ANDREW Baggaley has high hopes for himself and the England team as they start their European Table Tennis Championship campaign against Estonia on Friday in Russia.

The 32-year-old has just returned from training camps in China and Sweden and feels ready for the upcoming games.

"I had a really good 16 days in China. I feel really sharp going into the season after practising and sparring with different player's styles – it was a really varied practice.

"I'm travelling to Russia via Helsinki two days early to get used to the time difference and everything but I'm ready to get stuck in to the competition on Friday night.

"We are aiming to get into the top category from the second category but it will be tough, we will have to see how it goes on the day but I'm nicely confident."

The two times Commonwealth gold medallist has had a busy year so far, winning the Ping Pong World Championships back in January in London and beating world number 31 during his Czech Open campaign.

Meanwhile, Baggaley has still got ambitions of playing in the Rio Olympics next summer and is committed to making the competition.

He said: "It is very much a target, I've just got to keep playing and performing in the matches and take them one at a time and hopefully that will get me there."

Following the match on Friday, Baggaley and his England team-mates will have games against Group F opponents Italy and Bulgaria.

DONS COLUMN

DONS' kit man Tony Hawkins brings his exclusive Tales of the Kit Room to MK NEWS

A FEW people have been asking about superstitions and want to hear more about this phenomenon. I alluded to Richie's [Barker] many superstitions in my first column and I spoke to him again to glean further information on some of the more extreme superstitions he has.

If you watch the warm up before any game, Richie and I have a pre-set routine that we never stray from. I have never been a very superstitious person but since working with Richie I am now pre-programmed to follow this routine with military precision to the point where I've been known to lambast Richie for not following every minute detail. See how many of these you can spot at the next home game.

These rituals are important to many players and staff in football. When I speak to other kit men we will often swap stories of the weird and wonderful things our colleagues will do on a matchday. It is remarkable how many of these rituals are repeated across the country.

A while back, while on a particularly good run, one of our players would wear a compression top under his shirt that was quite literally falling apart. The only thing holding it together were the seams of the garment. More than once I had to retrieve it from the bin as my laundry assistant believed it was well past the point where it could still be worn.

I suppose as odd as it may have seemed to me at first that there were so many of these rituals, it is obviously important to the players that everything is in its rightful place on a match day.

My thinking on this is that if everything is in place, it's one less thing for players and staff to worry about and they can concentrate on the game ahead. Anyway, I must get off to training, so until next time...COYD!

Dons' double deal for striker and midfielder

BY JACK ASH
editor@mk-news.co.uk

MK DONS have completed the double signing of striker Nicky Maynard on a one year deal and midfielder Jake Forster-Caskey on loan from Brighton.

Maynard, 28, has been training with Karl Robinson's team for a number of weeks since his release from Cardiff City this summer. He could make his debut against Southampton in the Capital One Cup this evening.

Robinson said: "I'm really pleased we have got him and I think the fans will be pleased that we can get players of this quality through the door.

"It shows you again what we can achieve as a football club."

For match reports, pictures and the latest reaction visit onemk.co.uk/sport

Meanwhile, Forster-Caskey, 21, has joined on loan for five weeks up until and including the QPR fixture on October 24.

Robinson said: "I saw him when he came on for Dele in the U21s recently and he's someone I've got tremendous respect for."

The England youth international is ineligible to play in the Capital One Cup having already played for his parent club in this year's competition.

Delight: Daniel Ricciardo celebrates on the podium after finishing second in the Grand Prix in Singapore

Second podium finish for Ricciardo

DANIEL Ricciardo came second in the Singapore Grand Prix, claiming his second podium finish of the year.

In the week Volkswagen (VW)are rumoured to be taking over the F1 team based in Tilbrook, Red Bull team-mate Daniil Kvyat finished the race in sixth place with German Sebastian Vettel taking top spot.

The interruption of the race by the safety car failed to help either Red Bull driver – the first occasion came at a time when Ricciardo was pushing Vettel particularly hard at the top of the field.

Talking to the Red Bull website, Ricciardo said: "At the start Seb just went away and then I was coming back to him and if it hadn't been for the safety car, we'd have got pretty close and maybe an undercut would have been possible at the pit stop."

Meanwhile, it looks like VW could be set to take over Red Bull with the company building its own engine and Red Bull continuing as a main sponsor.

A VW engine will not enter F1 until the 2018 season with Red Bull using a Ferrari engine in the interim period.

The driver standings going into the Japanese Grand Prix on Saturday sees Ricciardo in seventh with 73 points and Kvyat in eighth with 66 points.

FAQs

For local residents:

I live in a residential area near the stadium - what is being done about fans parking in my estate?
Impact on residents parking will be limited as much as possible. Enforcement officers and marshalls will be in these areas to deter anti-social parking. Obstructive parking e.g. parking that blocks access can be dealt with by the police by ringing 101. The road closures and diversions allow access to the estates for residents however where Granby is affected, residents need only tell the marshalls at the gates that they live there. Clear signage will be in place directing people to the right areas.

Will marshalls be able to give out local advice and directions to fans?
Yes - each volunteer and marshall will be briefed in advance and will also carry information on their lanyards to show people where the access routes are, where to park.

Can I get a residents parking permit during the rugby matches?
No - there will not be any need for resident parking permits. Businesses in and around the stadium area can apply for access permits, see the Business FAQs section for more information.

How do I get to Beanhill/Netherfield/Ashland?
Entrance/exit to Beanhill is via V6 Grafton Street or H8 Standing Way. You will not be able to access Beanhill via V7 Saxon Street. When are the road closures coming into place?
The road closures will begin around 3pm for weekday matches and from 9am for the Saturday match. This may be earlier if there is an incident affecting the area such as a road traffic collision for example. Dawson Road closure will be in effect from midnight to midnight on match days.

How do I get to Primark/Odeon/MK1 area?
Access to the MK1 area e.g. Primark, River Island, Odeon will be via the V7 Saxon Street entrance. Clear signage will be in place showing direction to: Retail, MK1, Leisure, Cinema or Stadium.

How do I get to Asda/Ikea or DW Gym?
Access to Asda, Ikea and DW Gym is via the H10 Bletcham Way entrance. Access to Ikea, Asda and DW Gym will be through the H10 Bletcham Way entrance. DW Gym access for customers and staff is through the barrier between Asda and DW. The barrier will be staffed on match days.

My business is near the stadium - how will my customers gain access?
Businesses affected by the road closures and diversions on match days can request access permits from the Council by contacting us on 01908 691691. These permits will allow customers, staff and delivery drivers to pass through any road closures.

How are my staff going to get to work on time with all the road closures and diversions?
There will be disruption on match days due to the high volume of people coming into the stadium area however there is much to help minimise inconvenience for businesses and their staff. Where possible staff could car share , use public transport or walk to work on match days and access permits will be given to any business affected who needs them. Clear signage will be in place directing people to access routes for the retail and industrial areas and that businesses are open as usual.

When will road signs go up?
Signage has already started to go up and additional road signs will be erected from 14 September. Around the stadium there will be additional signage for each area to direct people namely: MK1, Retail, Stadium, Cinema and Leisure.
